

THE GOODS

PITCHER PERFECT

Not only do these Paolo pitchers have an elegant, transitional design that can work with a modern or classic table setting, but the ice stays inside and doesn't splash all over your guests when you're pouring. $450. At Elements, 741 N. Wells St., 877.642.6574, elementschicago.com

SILVER LINING These Paolo pitchers from Elements are super-chic and make pouring easy.

GAMES & GRUB

This jigsaw puzzle cutting board can be taken apart to spread the love (the food love, that is). $55. At Susan Fredman at Home in the City, 350 W. Erie St., 312.587.8150, susanfredman.com

RIDE THE WAVE! Snaidero's latest kitchen design says adios to corners.

ER CULTURE

es usually don't wind their way he kitchen, but Snaidero's t, Ola 20, brings a new wave linary style. Starting with the ter base's highly sculptural curve, the swerves continue on upper cabinets "handles" and corner-less cabinets. Who needs 90 degrees? At Snaidero, 222 Merchandise Mart #140, 312.644.6662, snaiderochicago.com

E OUT

ce a Chicagoan who loves clean, modern design, ou've probably perused the Haute Living om. From the tables to the sofas to the oh-zizing closets, Haute is known for being sleek, nd the ultimate in quality. Case in point: This al drawer system with organizing accessories talian company Binova. You can customize the o hold and organize spices, olive oil bottles, pots, utensils, dishes and anything else your inner l desires. At Haute Living, 222. W. Kinzie St., 29.9000, haute-living.com

